Tipton Family 1695462

These notes represent an effort to arrange the various conflicting data on this famous family in a manner that will reconcile, as nearly as possible, the various lines, so as to aid future searches.

No attempt has been made to bring the various lines down to the present time for the reason that they are too numerous and too widely scattered.

It seems obvious that there have been incorrect listings in every compilation of this family, and there are doubtless some in this one. However, we have set out deductions as such, so that there need be no doubt.

We have set out as the probable Emigrant Ancestor, Edward Tipton, although there has been found no tangible proof to support this. Moreover, it seems clearly apparent that if Jonathon Tipton was 110 years old when he died in 1757, there obviously was one or more intervening generations before we reach the Jonathon referred to as the father of Colonel John Tipton reported as born in 1730.

It appears there was a Jonathon, Jr., as well as a John in Baltimore County in 1725, and that a Jonathon was in Ann Arundel County records in 1700.

While it has been claimed by some that the Tipton Family is of Irish Origin, the origin of the name strongly supports the belief of others that the name was in England before it was in Ireland.

In England there is a Tipton Parish in an Urban District of South Staffordshire. It is an ancient church, and its parish registers go back to an early period.

The name Tipton appears in the DOMESDAY BOOK as TISINTONE. Its meaning was "The tun or town of TIBB or TIBBA'S people". It has been suggested on very good authority, that the name had its origin from the Seventh Century St. TIBBA, patroness of hunting.

As early as 1306 there were Tiptons in Bedford County, England.

The New Harlem Register, by H. P. TOLER, giving the genealogies of 23 original patentees of New Harlem, (N. Y.) includes in the list of names a Jonathon Tipton, born 1720. He married Mary Waldron, August 6, 1915, and had six children. No details are given as to location, etc.

The line from the Immigrant to Maryland is set out as follows:--

1- EDWARD TIPTON, born Bl620; died_____. An Edward Tipton came into Maryland in 1668 in the ship "Friendship" of London. (See Annapolis Land Office Records, Libre 11, Folio 379 and W. C. 2, Folio 143 for service 1680.)

We treat him as the probable head of this illustrous line.

He married_____.

They had:-

* 2 - JONATHAN TIPTON, born_____; died January 21, 1757.

Nos. 3 to 9 reserved.

(2) JONATHAN TIPTON, born_____; died January 21, 1757. He married_____.

It is probable that his wife's name was Smith as he is mentioned in the will of John Smith of Calvert County, Md., May 31, 1757, as having certain personal property at Smith's home.

He witnessed the will of Robert Goldsborough in Ann Arundel County, Md., November 24, 1700. In the will of Henry Attwood in Ann Arundel Co., Md., February 20, 1722 mention is made of 100 acres of land purchased from Jonathan Tipton.

His death is reported at page 83v, history of Baltimore City and County.

He is believed to have had the following:-

* 10 - JOHN TIPTON, born_____; died_____.
* 11 - JANE TIPTON, " _____; " _____.
* 12 - THOMAS " , " _____; " _____.
* 13 - WILLIAM " , " _____; " _____.

Nos. 14 to 19 reserved.

(10) JOHN TIPTON, born_____; died_____. Little is known of this probable son. He appeared as a witness to the will of Richard Kemp in Baltimore Co., Md., November 26, 1725, with his brother Jonathan. In that will Mary Kemp was given to the care of Mary Tipton until she attained her majority.

We deduce that he probably married Mary Kemp, sister of Richard Kemp. Also, she probably was the Mary Tipton whose death was reported December 6, 1736, in the Register of St. Paul's Church in Baltimore. They had:-

Nos. 20 to 29 reserved.

(11) JONATHAN TIPTON, born_____; died_____. He was referred to as Jonathan Tipton, Jr., when he witnessed the Will of Richard Kemp in Baltimore County, Md., November 26, 1735, with his brother (10) John Tipton.

He is reported as having married twice, as follows:-

I ELIZABETH or SARAH PIERCE Circa 1705
II MARY _____, after 1734.

The name of his first wife is deduced from the reference in the will of William Pierce in Ann Arundel County, Md., September 12, 1719, and from the Annapolis, Md., Land Office Records. (Libre A, Folio 425).

He had the following children, number 34 being from his second marriage.

* 30 - JOHN TIPTON, born August 15, 1730; died____1815.
* 31 - EDWARD " , " October 27, 1732; " _____.

(12) MARY TIPTON, born____1700; died A1754. She married 1- RAH _____. She was in Ann Arundel County records where he witnessed the Will of William Pierce (Pierce) September 12, 1719. In that will he and his brother are styled "nephews".

Later this man is in Baltimore County where his records appear in St. Paul's Parish Records.

He had:-

(13) WILLIAM TIPTON, born_____; died May 6, 1725. He married Hannah _____.

He appears of record in Ann Arundel County, Md., 9/12/1719, as a witness to the will of William Pearce (Pierce) with his brother Thomas. They are referred to in that will as nephews.

He made his will April 5, 1725, and it was proved in Baltimore Co., Md., August 2, 1725.

He seems to have had only the three children named in his will, all very young at the time of his death.

He had:-

* 50 - SAMUEL TIPTON, born May 13, 1721; died _____.
* 51 - MORDECAI " , " April 18, 1724; " 1795.

(50) JOHN TIPTON, born August 15, 1730; died August 1813 or 1815. He was born in Baltimore Co., Md., where his birth is recorded in the old St. Paul's Church Register. He died in Tennessee and is buried on Sinking Creek in Washington County, Tenn. He was the famous Colonel John Tipton, whose fame is outstanding even in his great family of fighters.

He moved to Frederick County, Virginia while a young man. Later when Dunmore was formed he was located in the new county. He continued there when Dunmore was renamed Shenandoah County.

Merely as a matter of information we list a few of his early records as follows:-

3/3/1756 and 3/6/1756 in suit, Frederick Co., Va. (O.B.7,page 21).
6/3/1756 " " " " " vs. Jacob Petmore.
11/1/1757-He obtained lease, and 11/3/1757 for land from the Northern Neck Proprietors, Frederick Co., Va.(D.B.5,page 31).

After 1780-He, with Wm. Plumber, divided 142 acres of land in Shenandoah Co., Va., which his wife had levied under the will of her father.

In March 6, 1771 he was a Vestryman in the Tinkling Springs Church.
April 17,1772 he was a Justice in Dunmore County, Va.
In 1774 he served in Gen. Lewis Division in the Dunmore War.

He married twice as follows:-

I MARY BUTLER, Circa 1750. She was the daughter of Thomas Butler, and died June 8, 1776 following the birth of (65) Jonathon Tipton.
II MARTHA MOORE, nee DPNTON, a widow, July 22, 1777.

From Virginia he moved into North Carolina, and his location fell within the later state of Tennessee. His activities in connection with the formation of the new state have no place in this compilation.

He served in the Revolutionary War, and in various Indian engagements before and after it.

He had the following children, number 64 by his second marriage. (Note two children named Abraham; the second born after the first child had been killed in action in 1781.

He had:-

(32) JONATHAN TIPTON, born October 23, 1738; died_____. This man has been claimed by some compilers as the Major Jonathan Tipton who fought at Kings Mountain. However, it is to be noted that this man was born about 16 years before the Major Jonathon.

He probably was the Jonathon Tipton, mentioned as a Constable in Frederick Co., Va., August 7, 1771. (Order Book 15, Page 347).

Jonathon Tipton was defendant in a suit in Frederick Co., Va., March 6, 1756. (O.B. 7, page 38).

It may have been this Jonathon Tipton who deeded land on Cedar Creek, Dunmore County (now Shenandoah Co., Va.) December 24, 1774. The land was deeded to Lawrence Chupp, Jr., and Jonathan's wife signed as Elizabeth. Both signed by mark.

(35) JOSEPH TIPTON, born_____; died B1842. We follow the deductions of the Tennessee Historical Society in classing this man as a brother of (30) Colonel John Tipton, but we have no dates of birth or death.

He is reported as having gone to the Watauga District of North Carolina with his brother Jonathon about 1775, and he was a member of the Jonesboro Convention there in 1784-1785. With his brother John he opposed the creation of a separate state. They lost and the state of Tennessee was the later result of that movement. He also was a member of the committee to ratify the Constitution of the State of Franklin which preceded Tennessee.

A Joseph Tipton was in a suit in Frederick Co., Va., August 1760. (Order Book 22, page 356).

-- 44 --

(44) JOHN TIPTON, born July 6, 1726; died ____1835. He married MARY MURRAY, February 18, 1747, in Baltimore Co., Md. Here is another man whose record is difficult to sever to from that of (30) Colonel John Tipton. His wife was born Nov. 26, 1726, daughter of Jabez Murray and Mary. This compilation is largely deduction from such meager records as are obtainable. He or (30) John may have been the John Tipton in Shenandoah Co., Va., records in 1783, with 10 whites.

The Compiler believesthis man was the progenitor of the Tipton line which settled in Estill, and Montgomery Co., Ky. We so record him, and will be glad to make such corrections as may be justified.

He was in the Montgomery Co., Ky., tax lists 1810 to 1833 with 100 acres of land, and had previously been in the Madison Co., Ky., tax lists in 1797 to 1807.

He was in the Shenandoah Co., Va., tax list of 1782 and 1783, with 3 whites, but was not in the 1785 list. This indicates he moved to what is now Tennessee about 1784. He is buried in Green Hill Cemetery, Carter Co., Tenn., Elizabethton.

(It appears this man obtained 4000 acres of land as the heir-at-law of Abraham Tipton. (Warrant 4456.)

A niece, Mrs. Isaac Dunlap, made application for a pension, as his heir, in Tazewell Co., Ill., August 14, 1847. It was rejected.

The papers with the pension refers to his brothers in Tennessee and elsewhere. They also include a certificate showing he was commissioned

November 8, 1779 and killed September 2, 1781. (Note the difference of 1 year) (Pension Application R18512).

The papers also refer to an unsuccessful attempt made by an alleged illegitimate son, to obtain a pension as the heir of this man.

He got 150 acres in Shenandoah Co., Va., December 9, 1778. (Patent book R, Page 51).

He applied for a pension in Knox Co., Tenn., July 8, 1834 (S 295). The application recited that he moved to Green Co., Tenn., about 1784, then to Knox Co., Tenn., about 1787 or 1788 and finally to Blount Co., Tenn., near the Knox Co., line in 1815 or 1816.

They marched to Ft. Washington near Cincinnati reaching there July 19, 1791. His company was attached to the Regular Army, but he longed for action so he joined a party of militia November 4, 1791, stating: " I came here to fight, and I will do it." He fell mortally wounded and his last words were: "My brave fellows, I am a dead man; do you fight on, and bravely do all you can for your country." (Knoxville Gazette 12/17/1791).

He seemed to have had a premonition of his fate for as he rode from home he turned and called his wife. He asked her in case he was killed on the expedition that she re-name their son William as Jacob. His wishes were complied with and this son became General Jacob Tipton in carrying on the family tradition.

He proved he had enlisted in June 1775 in Baltimore Co., Md., militia and served 5 years and 2 months. He was a private, ensign and 1st Lieutenant, having enlisted at 15. He lived at the time about 27 miles from Baltimore on "Gunpowder".

(100) JONATHAN TIPTON, born Circa 1767; died September 14, 1848.

This man is tentatively identified as a son of Joseph Tipton although the compiler is without a shred of proof to confirm it.

This Jonathan Tipton moved to Marshall Co., Ala., where he applied for a pension for Revolutionary War Service. The application was rejected. The file is incomplete as it does not contain the application made during his life.

Four years after his death his heirs sought to obtain a pension for his service, but they failed. He claimed to have served under Major Jonathan Tipton, but the War Department disallowed the claim due to his youth at time of the alleged service.

A Jabez Tipton appears in the Madison Co., Ky., tax list for 1809 with 100 acres on Otter Creek. He continues there until 1818, but his estate is being administered in 1819 by Thomas Tipton, indicating the probable year of Jabez death. He was in the Madison Co., Ky., Census of 1810, over 45, with seven sons and seven daughters.

(142) JONATHAN TIPTON, born ___ 1750; died January 18, 1833. In his application for a pension he stated he was born in Frederick Co., Va., in 1750. His papers show he died in Cumberland Co., Ky., January 18, 1833, although it has been claimed by some that he died in Overton Co., Tenn. The two counties are in the same territory.

He enlisted for Revolutionary Service in Washington Co., N. C., (now Tenn.) He applied for a pension October 29, 1832 in Overton Co., Tenn.

He was a Major in the North Carolina Service and was in the Battle of Kings Mountain. He lived in Washington Co., for 17 years after the war then moved to Buncombe Co., N. C., where he remained 27 years. From there he moved to Overton Co., Tenn.

Much confusion has resulted from efforts to identify this man. Many compilers have claimed he was a brother of (30) Colonel John Tipton. This cannot be for (32) Jonathan Tipton, brother of (30) John Tipton was born October 25, 1734, 16 years too early for this man.

After his death his widow claimed his pension and received it. She gave her name as LAVINIA or LYDIA Stephens, and stated they were married in Buncombe Co., N. C., in April or May 1810, 1811 or 1815. In 1833 a man, Isaac Tipton, 54, testified as to the marriage. So, too, did Mr. Stevens. She stated Jonathan Tipton had been married previously, but that she had not. March 6, 1851 she was in Reynolds Co., Mo. She refers to her "Old William Stevens". He was then 50 years old.

In the file is a letter from Irvine, Estill Co., Ky., dated September 2, 1854 from Samuel Tipton and John Tipton in which they refer to their father Jonathan Tipton, who died in Cumberland Co., Ky., in 1833. They deny that their father had married Levincy Stephens or Stevens. They say "This woman was not the wife of Jonathan Tipton, neither was she ever married to him", and that his "only legal heirs live in this county".

They were advised by the Pension Bureau to sue to recover the amounts paid the widow if they were correct. Levicty (Stephens) Tipton lived in Buncombe Co., N. C., until 1825, then moved to Overton Co., N. C. Later she lived in White Co., Tenn., and finally in 1851 she was in Reynolds Co., Mo.

The compiler identifies this man as the father of the three Tiptons who were brought to Kentucky by their uncle John Daughhetee. These sons were Samuel, John and William Tipton. They were in Estill Co., Ky., when it was formed.

He married as follows:-

I PERLINA (?) DAUGHETEE before 1772

He was born near Baltimore, Maryland, and later moved to Virginia about 7 miles from Mt. Vernon. He later lived in Frederick Co., Va. He enlisted for Revolutionary War Service in June, 1776, under Captain John Galloway.

His nephew (141) William Tipton served in the same company with him, and made oath September 17, 1850 that Thomas Tipton was then "upwards of 90".

After the war Thomas Tipton moved to Botetourt Co., Va. He was there Dec. 12, 1782 when a road was surveyed from his home. He acquired 80 acres on the James River, August 28, 1779, from David Tate. This land he sold June 7, 1785 to Wm. Frazier, Thomas deeding it with his wife Mary. (Pages 366-383-570 Annals of Southwest Virginia).

In 1787 and continuing until 1792 he was in the Madison Co., Ky., tax lists, but listed no land. In 1794 he was in the Clark Co., Ky., tax list.

He later moved to Champaign Co., Ohio, and applied for a pension in that county, March 9, 1838/(S-10874) One of his character witnesses stated that Thomas was a Deacon in the Baptist Church. Senator John Tipton (310) of Indiana wrote recommending his pension be allowed and indicated he was a nephew of the soldier.

He was buried in the Johnson Cemetery near Neuthtown, Champaign County, Ohio, according to D. A. R. Records.
